Our philosophy

We are committed to building and participating in a community where all persons are welcomed, and where all members are valued for who they are and for the contributions they make.

This is the vision of an inclusive community – a place characterized by diversity, hospitality, belonging and respect.

Economic inclusion has many benefits. When we invite the rich contributions of individuals with disabilities into our workplace, we discover that our communities become more vibrant, beautiful and safer as a result. In community, everyone belongs.
