

The Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) and The Disability Tax Credit (DTC)

Hosted by PosAbilities &
Burnaby Association for Community
Inclusion (BACI)

Where: BACI, 2702 Norland Ave, Burnaby.
Onsite Parking Available

When: 10am - 12pm Saturday, November 4, 2017

Who: The workshop is for people who have disabilities, their families and service providers.

Cost: Free! Light refreshments provided.

In the workshop you will learn:

- Tips for applying for the Disability Tax Credit
- How to open an RDSP if you are under 60 years of age and how to access grants and bonds if you are under 50 years of age
- How to get free help with catching up on your taxes with TaxAid at DABC, if you receive PWD

Access RDSP
Change your tomorrow today

About the RDSP:

The Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) is a Canada-wide registered matched savings plan that primarily benefits people most who are under 50.

About the DTC:

The Disability Tax Credit (DTC) is a non-refundable tax credit that helps to lower the amount of taxes you pay, at any age.

To RVSP or for more information contact your hosts:

Rachel Goddyn at 778 386 4046 or rachel.goddyn@goabci.com
Monique Nelson at 778 945 3367
mnelson@posabilities.ca

Access RDSP is a program run by Disability Alliance BC, Plan Institute and BC Aboriginal Network on Disability Society and funded by the Vancouver Foundation